

420K TWO-DAY TRIP, WEEKEND OF 4/27-4/28

Location: Small ranch near Streeter, SE of Mason, TX

Objectives: 1) Make a map of the Cambrian/Precambrian nonconformity.
2) Make a map of PC folded marbles.

Departure: 7:00 AM Saturday, 4/27 from East basement door of Geo. Building.

Return: Back on campus by about 8:00 PM Sunday, 4/28

Field Supplies:	Brunton	Water
	GPS & book	2 Lunches
	Protractor	Hat
	Field notebook	Sunscreen
	Hammer	Colored Pencils
	Hand Lens	Eraser, liquid paper
	Clipboard	Technical Pens with ink

Camping Supplies:	Sleeping Bag	Sleeping Pad
	Ground Cloth	Tent (optional)
	Flashlight	Toiletries

- Sleeping bags and pads can be rented for the weekend from UT Rec. Sports, or from REI.
- A single overnight stay does not require your full complement of outdoor gear. Our space is limited; please keep your personal gear to a minimum.

Meals: You will need two lunches. A large ice chest will be available to store your supplies for Sunday lunch. Saturday dinner and Sunday breakfast are provided; please see me before the trip if you are a vegetarian.

Participation: Absolutely required.